Experienced Concrete Restoration Technician – Toronto, ON

Vector Corrosion Technologies is looking for candidates to join our growing team. We create an environment that fosters continuous growth and learning – both career-wise and personally. Our training & development, safety programs, and workplace environment create a positive family-feeling, employee-first culture, that helps us deliver the highest standard of work in the concrete restoration industry.
We are looking for Experienced Concrete Restoration Technicians to join our team of concrete restoration specialists administering our innovative concrete repair solutions.

Common job duties may include, but are not limited to:

- Chipping concrete
- Pouring and patching concrete
- Concrete form work
- Installing traffic deck membranes and industrial coatings
- Performing epoxy and urethane injections
- Operating equipment to perform work – including hand and power tools

Skill set to include:

- Attention to safety and the ability to work safely is a requirement of this job
- Minimum 3 years construction experience in a leadership role required, concrete experience is a plus.
- Being dependable and reliable.
- Demonstrated high level of energy, initiative and leadership.
- Willingness to learn and take on new types of work.
- Ability to travel as needed to get to project locations.
- A valid driver's license is a plus.
- Work as part of a team towards meeting construction schedules.

Benefits of this FULL TIME UNION POSITION include all the benefits outlined in the Union Agreement:

- $24.00-$29.00 per hour depending on experience
- Group health insurance, Life insurance
- Pension plan
- Emphasis on employee training, development and advancement opportunities within the company

Join the industry leader with Vector Corrosion Technologies, a platinum member of the 50 best-managed companies in Canada. https://www.vector-construction.com/employment/

Interested candidates please email resumes to address below or online on indeed, only successfully candidates will be contacted for interviews. All applications will be treated as confidential.

Attn: HR Department
Careers.Canada@Vector-Construction.com